At Guided Path Terminal Cancer Support, Inc. (Guided Path), we are committed to creating a welcoming, inclusive, and compassionate environment for all individuals. We do not tolerate discrimination of any kind and affirm the dignity and worth of every person we serve, employ, partner with, or engage as a volunteer.

Guided Path does not discriminate on the basis of:

- Race
- Color
- National origin
- Ethnicity
- Age
- Gender
- Gender identity or expression
- Sexual orientation
- Disability
- Marital or familial status
- Religion or creed
- Military or veteran status
- Socioeconomic status
- Diagnosis or health condition

This commitment applies to all areas of our work, including service delivery, hiring and employment practices, volunteer engagement, fundraising, and community outreach.

We believe that equity, accessibility, and inclusion are essential to fulfilling our mission—to provide compassionate, personalized support to individuals and families navigating the challenges of terminal cancer.

If you have questions, concerns, or need additional support related to accessibility or inclusion, please contact us:
